Bingham Fellows Class of 2010 is announced with the goal of "Positioning Louisville as a Green Leader"

Louisville, Kentucky (January 28, 2010) – The Leadership Louisville Center is announcing the members of the Bingham Fellows Class of 2010. For 20 years, the Bingham Fellows have provided creative leadership solutions to the community's most pressing issues. The Class of 2010 will work to position Louisville as a green leader. This builds on the three year focus on Quality of Place goals identified in the Greater Louisville Project (2008 – Creating strong regional partnerships and 2009 – Attracting the next generation of talent).

The Bingham Fellows program brings together a group of passionate, informed, dedicated leaders to address community issues and effect social change. Greening and sustainability initiatives have the potential to impact all sectors of the community and the 2010 class includes the key players: grassroots and corporate leaders, experts in environmental fields and contacts in the public sector.
