Leadership Louisville Center Announces the Leadership Louisville Class of 2011

Louisville, Kentucky (June 15, 2010) – The Leadership Louisville Center has selected the Leadership Louisville Class of 2011. Fifty-nine local leaders have been selected for Leadership Louisville—the Leadership Louisville Center’s signature program for established community leaders, founded in 1979. These talented leaders will spend ten months learning more about themselves, expanding their professional and social network, refining their leadership skills, developing an understanding of how our community works, and examining in-depth the important issues that will impact Louisville’s future.

The Leadership Louisville Class of 2011 will begin in August 2010 and run through May 2011. Members of the Leadership Louisville Class of 2011 include:
