THE LEADERSHIP GREEN ROOM

JANUARY — JUNE 2018 COURSES

A Leadership Development Solution for Your Entire Organization

PRESENTED BY

Republic Bank Foundation

Leadership Louisville Center
Step into the Leadership Green Room’s latest line-up of courses for the most dynamic and innovative leadership development available in the region. Offered by the Leadership Louisville Center, a trusted resource for nearly 40 years, the leading-edge curriculum is taught by local and global thought-leaders.

All courses are designed to deliver tangible and lasting impact for leaders across your organization, including C-suite leaders, senior executives, emerging talent, first-time supervisors, and everyone in between. While in the Leadership Green Room, participants are immersed in breakthrough thinking alongside potential clients and professional peers, leaving with greater confidence, knowledge and networks. There’s no better regional resource to prepare leaders to execute at the highest level.

Beginning in 2018, all Green Room courses will be hosted in the Center’s new location at 707 W. Main Street. Designed to be a nationally-recognized center for leadership development and social innovation, the new facility is surrounded by natural light and equipped with modern technologies and amenities. Participants will enjoy a learning environment that promotes the exchange of ideas and stimulates creativity. Visitors to Louisville have easy access to hotels and after-hours activities in the heart of downtown’s Museum Row.

BECOME A GREEN ROOM PARTNER
AND SAVE UP TO 20% FOR YOUR ORGANIZATION

Courses range from one to three points; see course descriptions for details. Packages can be customized to meet your learning needs.

Contact Lisa Zangari at lzangari@leadershiplouisville.org or (502) 753-1490 to learn more.
LEAD LIKE A BOSS
Learn Habits to be Your Most Successful

This interactive workshop is designed for accomplished professionals ready to take their career to the next level. Participants will explore how some behaviors that lead to individual success may be the very tendencies that limit their potential. With greater awareness of interpersonal skills in leadership, participants will create a developmental action plan that equips them for greater career responsibility. While many courses focus on telling leaders what to do, this course helps leaders understand what to stop.

- Build self-awareness by reflecting on your professional journey
- Define strengths you can use as behavioral anchors
- Understand your blind spots and ineffective habits
- Gain a proven approach to positive behavior change and develop a personalized action plan
- Transition from ‘manager’ to influential leader

FACULTY
Lisa Zangari, Director of Learning, Leadership Louisville Center
Holly Prather, Vice President, Leadership Louisville Center

WHO IS IT FOR
First-time supervisors through mid-level managers

Jan. 12 & 26
1 Point
$450

LEADING WITH PRESENCE
Motivate Teams, Communicate Values and Inspire Followership

The best leaders bring more to the table than technical skills and intellect, or inner charisma and charm. They are relationship builders who have learned to connect authentically with the hearts and minds of others in a way that motivates and inspires them to achieve results.

This executive education course takes best practices from training for actors and applies it to specific, actionable business behaviors that enable leaders to present themselves and their thinking more powerfully to clients and colleagues at all levels. Participants will receive extensive practice, rehearsal and coaching, using proven curriculum integrated into the leading graduate schools of business, including Harvard, Columbia, Darden and Duke.

- Have greater impact during strategic communication moments
- Communicate a complex idea, vision, or strategy through a story
- Inspire, motivate and create followership

FACULTY
The Ariel Group, International training firm from Boston area whose client list includes American Express, Bain Capital, Capital One, General Electric, IBM, Procter and Gamble and Raytheon

WHO IS IT FOR
Emerging executives and senior leaders with significant management responsibility

Feb. 23
3 Points
$1,350

FIND MORE INFORMATION AND REGISTER AT LEADERSHIPLOUISVILLE.ORG/THE-LEADERSHIP-GREEN-ROOM
2018 LEADERSHIP SUMMIT
Leading in the New World of Work

Leading in the New World of Work is the driving force behind the 2018 Summit, with keynote speakers and interactive workshops delivering performance-boosting learning to influence leadership agility and success. Content will focus on better leading today’s diverse teams and honing your ability to thrive in the 21st century.

Agenda includes:

• Leading-edge theory and practices for more engaged and innovative teams
• Deeper skills development around generational challenges, inclusive leadership and collaboration
• Cutting-edge strategies that transform how you live and lead

VISIT LEADERSHIPLOUISVILLE.ORG FOR FINAL DATE ANNOUNCEMENT AND SPEAKERS

WHO IS IT FOR
Teams and individuals who want to learn fresh, unique approaches to leadership and connect with other regional leaders

Mar. 2018 1 Point $450

DEVELOPING & LEADING HIGH-PERFORMANCE TEAMS

Creating and leading high-performance teams can be one of the most rewarding experiences of your career – and also one of the most challenging. You recognize a high-performing team when you see one, but what enables their success isn’t always as clear. By understanding how to create and sustain high-performance teams while also developing the skills and confidence of each individual, you can unlock the full potential of your people and increase organizational effectiveness.

• Decode the characteristics and behaviors of and explore the science behind high-performance teams
• Practice using a range of leadership styles
• Understand how to overcome and manage the common team dysfunctions
• Learn how to enable cohesion while also allowing for productive conflict
• Discover how to harness the diverse strengths of your team for greater creativity and collaboration
• Practice leadership behaviors and influencing techniques that you can start using immediately back at work
• Work in peer-coaching groups to develop a customized action plan

FACULTY
Lisa Zangari, Director of Learning, Leadership Louisville Center

WHO IS IT FOR
Leaders of all career levels that want to draw the best out of their teams and nurture individuals along the way

Apr. 12-13 2 Points $900
THE POWER TO PERFORM:
Developing Your Results Roadmap™

The Power to Perform® is a full-day group coaching experience that incorporates principles of highly effective leadership based on neuroscience research and creates a personal strategy for achieving a real-life result using The Results Roadmap™ methodology. The program develops skills needed to implement the strategy and to perform in a sustainable way.

• Understand the key factors driving optimized performance
• Gain awareness of the success patterns driving toward a specific desired result
• Neutralize the thinking and behaviors that impede progress on creating results
• Learn self-management techniques for sustainably changing your thinking and behaviors to support higher performance
• Create a detailed Results Roadmap™ for achieving your desired results

FACULTY
Jonathan E. (“Jeb”) Bates,
Chief Experience Officer
ThoughtAction LLC

WHO IS IT FOR
New and experienced leaders who want to take their performance to a new level and optimize their method of driving key results

May 18
1 Point
$450

June 15
3 Points
$1,350

COURAGEOUS CONVERSATIONS
Master Situational Communication with interactive business theatre

Executives face high-stakes interactions with confidence and credibility, with little room for error. In this dynamic executive education course, participants will see the difficult conversations they’ve grappled with brought to life by actors, offering vital practice around the most challenging situations.

With practice and agility, courageous conversations provide a powerful avenue for driving organizational change, along with saving time, alleviating stress and reducing frustration.

• Identify and release individual blocks that prevent them from conducting courageous conversations
• Differentiate between tools used for coaching and tools used in delivering feedback
• Understand common pitfalls when addressing difficult situations and how to avoid them
• Demonstrate use of a range of tools used in difficult conversations and how to apply the appropriate tool for a given situation

FACULTY
Ruth LeStrange,
International Executive Coach

WHO IS IT FOR
Emerging executives and senior leaders with significant management responsibility

"No training program has been more impactful than the business theatre. You not only learn, you feel the emotions of situations leaving a lasting impression!"

AL CORNISH
System VP/Chief Learning Officer, Norton Healthcare
LEADERSHIP LOUISVILLE CENTER

Created in 1979, the Leadership Louisville Center is the region's most valuable resource for leadership development and civic engagement. With thousands of alumni from its civic programs, the Center has been recognized as one of the top seven community leadership programs in the U.S. by the Center for Creative Leadership. The Leadership Louisville Center strives to be a force for positive change for individuals, organizations and the community.

The Leadership Green Room allows the Center to better help the business community develop their best talent, creating meaningful increases in leadership knowledge, capability and confidence among participants. For leaders with significant management responsibility, the Executive Green Room brings world-class executive education to Louisville and surrounding regions.

Find more information and register at: LeadershipLouisville.org/The-Leadership-Green-Room

"For all of our team members, the variety of curriculum in the Leadership Green Room allows us to meet the learning and development needs of every individual."

SCOTT COLOSI
President & CEO, Texas Roadhouse